Wilmington Trust Adds Commercial Banking Professional in New Jersey

Gerald Buffalino joins team serving clients in Monmouth, Middlesex, and Ocean counties

Princeton, NJ, June 18, 2009 – Wilmington Trust announced the addition of Gerald Buffalino to its commercial banking team serving clients in Monmouth, Middlesex, and Ocean counties. Mr. Buffalino will be based in the Princeton office of Wilmington Trust FSB, New Jersey.

“It’s important for clients to have qualified teams of commercial bankers and wealth advisors working on their behalf,” said Sean S. Murray, president of Wilmington Trust FSB, New Jersey. “The addition of Jerry gives Wilmington Trust another highly credentialed professional and reflects our commitment to providing a superior banking experience to our clients.”

Mr. Buffalino, regional vice president and senior commercial relationship manager, brings more than 33 years of banking experience to Wilmington Trust. Prior to joining Wilmington Trust, he spent 17 years with Wachovia Bank N.A., New Jersey. He has also served in the commercial banking operations of both Citibank and Lloyd’s Bank. Mr. Buffalino holds an MBA in Finance from Fairleigh Dickinson University and a bachelor’s degree in Economics and Political Science from Fordham University.

Wilmington Trust FSB, New Jersey provides commercial banking services to closely held or family owned businesses, which typically have up to $250 million in annual sales. The company serves these clients with teams of commercial bankers and wealth advisors, who support clients’ lending needs as they establish and grow their businesses and their families’ wealth management needs as their businesses prosper.
